The Lesson

Lesson Title	Elijah on Mount Horeb
Text	1 Kings 19: 1-21 and 2 Kings 2: 9-12
Lesson Objective	The children's faith is strengthened by the knowledge that the Lord never forsakes those who serve Him faithfully.

Lesson Summary:

- Elijah had to flee Israel as Jezebel, the king's wife, wanted to have him killed. She was angry, because he destroyed her prophets and gods. He fled with his servant, and later left the servant in a village and fled into the desert alone.
- Wearily Elijah dragged himself through the hot sand. Exhausted, he sat down under a tree and said, "I have had enough Lord. Let me die." Then, he fell asleep.
- God provided food for him in the desert. While he was sleeping, the voice of an angel woke him up and said: "Get up and eat you have a long way ahead of you."
- Strengthened by the food, Elijah travelled through the wilderness for forty days, until he reached Mount Horeb.
- There, God appeared to him in a soft whisper, and commissioned him to anoint two new Kings, one over Syria and one over Israel. The new kings will punish the house of Ahab.
- The Lord also told Elijah to anoint Elisha, as a prophet to succeed him. Then, the time came for the Lord to take Elijah up to heaven in a whirlwind and Elisha witnessed how Elijah was taken up into heaven in a chariot of fire by a whirlwind.

What does this lesson mean for us today?

- God always strengthened Elijah in his fight for God when the people worshipped idols and God protected him against Jezebel.
- God looked after him during the drought and in the desert and God also comforted him and ensured him a successor.
- God took Elijah from the earth in a wonderful way, he did not die.
- If we serve God faithfully like Elijah did, God will never forsake (leave) us.

Some questions that we can ask:

1. Why did Elijah have to flee?

A: Jezebel wanted to have him killed.

2. How did God look after Elijah in the desert?
